

Invitation

Content Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) Professional Learning Day

The key note speaker will be Dr Russell Cross who is a senior lecturer in languages education and literacy at the University of Melbourne. Dr Cross is an expert in CLIL and has made presentations around Australia supporting the CLIL movement.

Nadine Fraise will be presenting interactive workshops in the afternoon on activities and techniques for implementing CLIL. Ms Fraise founded the Langues-et-terre language and teacher training centre which is based in Brittany, France. She is a dynamic presenter and trainer in methods for teaching CLIL.

Languages consultant Mariel Howard, from the Catholic Education Office, will present an interactive art lesson conducted in Finnish.

Primary German teacher Helen Kuehs will give a presentation on how she has successfully taught German through her students working in their school's community garden.

This whole day professional learning event will provide participants with an opportunity to develop their understanding of the theoretical underpinnings of CLIL and a hands-on experience of the technique.
