

KOREAN STUDIES PROFESSIONAL TRAINING WORKSHOP

June 27-28th 2019

The University Club of Western Australia

Join us for a free professional development workshop designed for HASS teachers!

Professional development certificate provided by the School of Social Sciences, the University of Western Australia

Features presentations by leading academics from UWA, UNSW, Monash University and ANU, as well as presenters from NSW DoE, WA and ACT schools

Registration and participation is FREE

Refreshments, lunch and workshop dinner set at the University Club included in the registration

Why sign up?

A two-day workshop designed to provide you with a solid overview of Korean society, culture, history, politics, popular culture and Australia-Korea relations.

All presentation materials have been designed to address the 'Asia priority' curriculum, and will be free for you to take an use in your own teaching practice in classroom.

Q&A session on funding and further curriculum development opportunities

Workshop dinner hosted at the Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery, featuring Korean cuisine and a traditional music performance by Jocelyn Clark (gayageum, image on the left) and Choi Jinsook (pansori).

Registrations limited to 50 participants. For registration and further information:

Register here

Detailed program and speakers

Venues and parking

For enquiries, contact: Dr Nicola Frascini, nicola.frascini@uwa.edu.au