ALAA Conversations with an Expert

A Conversation with Professor Constant Leung

Date: Thursday, 13 August 2026

Time: 5:00–6:00 pm (AEST)

Format: Online (Zoom link to be provided to registered attendees)

Calling All ALAA Members!

The Applied Linguistics Association of Australia (ALAA) warmly invites you to join an interactive online conversation with Professor Constant Leung, one of the world's leading scholars in educational linguistics, language education, language assessment, multilingualism and language policy.

About the Session

This event is part of ALAA's Conversations with an Expert series, designed to support Higher Degree Research (HDR) students and Early and Mid Career Researchers (ECRs). However, all members are welcome to join this series.

Rather than a formal presentation, the session will follow an interview-style format inspired by collaborative conversations. Participants will have the opportunity to engage with Professor Leung's experiences and insights on topics such as:

- Applied linguistics research
- Language education and assessment
- Academic publishing
- Building an academic career
- Research leadership
- Work–life balance in academia
- Future directions in applied linguistics

Register and Help Shape the Conversation

All registered participants are next invited to submit one or two questions to ask the invited expert directly during the conversation.

To ensure a rich and engaging discussion, ALAA will review submitted questions and develop a set of key themes and questions for the session. An invited host will invite participants to ask the invited expert.

Registration

Please register early so that we can plan the conversation and prepare questions for Professor Leung.
